Maple sugar wanted at Bishop Bros.

Bacon is high; it will pay you to bring it to Bishop Bros. and exchange it for fish.

I will sell on March 28th, (Court day) a four-year-old Norman stallion. This horse is a roan, and weighs about 1,400. Terms made known on day of sale. mad4t John C. Swecker.

All persons having claims against the estate of Miss Matilda Wilson, dec'd, will present them for payment not later than March 28, 1893.
W. P. CAMPBELL, Admr.

We call attention to the Richmond Weekly Dispatch which appears in another column. The Dispatch as a general newspaper is without a peer in the State, and is one of the foremost of the South.

Preaching at Pisgah next Sabbath at 11 o'clock and at Monterey at 7:30 p. m. On the 26th, preaching may be expected at Crabbottom in the morning at 11 o'clock, and at 3 o'clock p. m. at Hightown.
W. E. Hamilton.

The store of H. E. Colaw, at Crabbottom, was broken into Sunday night and $5 in small change and several articles of merchandise taken therefrom. An entrance was effected by the party or parties removing a large glass from a side window which it seems was without shutters. Two young men were arrested on circumstantial evidence, but made their escape while being held for a preliminary hearing.

Below is given the percent of Class 1 in spelling and defining of the Meadow Dale school, for the last month ending Mar. 10, 1893: Frank Bratton, 98.5; Adam Fleisher, 99.25; Homer Gum, 98.6; James Gum, 98.75; Paul Gum, 97.5; Mc Gwin, 99.6; Ed. McClintic, 95; Eugene Rodgers, 100; Adam Stephenson, 99.75; Holmes Stephenson, 98.75; Wm. Stephenson, 99.6; Gertrude Wade, 98.2; Nellie Wade, 98; Lillie Wade, 99.95.

W. P. CAMPBELL.

An editor may feel as brave as a lion and be ready at any time to resent the intrusion of an enemy, even when said enemy is backed by an avoirdupois of 250 and a full growth of whiskers. But let a bevy of pretty girls invade the sanctum and demand that he manipulate a Washington press, and at the same time keep a Millbourne jobber humming, while between gasps he gives an itemized invoice of paraphernalia of a printing office, and he will wilt. We did. Five or six of 'em found their way into our office one day last week while the door was open. After they had raised the siege we punched our typewriter from under a job case, dug a loafer out of the waste closet and fished enough type out of our inkstand to set this up: "Yes he will wilt."

PERSONAL MENTION AND LOCALS.

Sunshine, snow and wind. Wind, snow and sunshine. Personals scarce this week. Today is St. Patrick's day. March squalls and April showers.

Best lake fish you ever saw at Bishop Bros.

Mr. V. F. Harouff spent Tuesday night in town.

Mrs. Caroline Wimer is sick at her home on Main St.

Happy and content is a home with "The Rochester," a lamp with the light of the morning. Catalogues, write Rochester Lamp Co., New York.

Mr. Salisbury Newman spent Thursday with friends in Monterey.

Mrs. John W. Byrd, of the Green Hill neighborhood, is dangerously ill.

Mrs. Maud V. Slaven was visiting friends and relatives on Bull Pasture last week.

Messrs L. H. Stephenson and G. J. Hiner attended Bath Court, this week, at Warm Springs.

William Swecker, of Crabbottom was in town one day this week, for the first time for several years.

Miss Emma McClintic spent a few days visiting friends in Monterey and neighborhood this week.

George Gutshall started east today with two horses which he will put on the Harrisonburg market.

Miss Sallie Swadley, who has been teaching at Brownsburg, Rockbridge county, returned home Thursday.

Miss Mamie McNulty, who has been attending Prof. Colaw's school returned to her home at Meadow Dale, this week.

Hon. H. St. George Tucker is remembering his friends by sending out a generous supply of garden seeds from the Department of Agriculture.

Benjamin Fleisher sold a stack of hay to Wm. Trimble this week for $18. This sounds reasonable and the example set by Mr. Fleisher should be followed by those who have hay to sell.

Dr. K. H. Trimble has added to the comforts of his handsome residence by building a spacious grape arbor through his garden. Doc. has the proper idea of what constitutes a home with pleasant surroundings.

The Board of Supervisors was in session last Monday and awarded the contract for putting and keeping in repair that part of the S. & P. road extending from the Standing Rock on Crab Run to West Augusta to J. B. Bradshaw and John R. Rexrodeat $25 per mile. The remainder of the road not yet let to contract. To A. E. Bryant was awarded the contract for graveling 100 rods of road on east side of Bull Pasture Mountain, at 50c per rod.

Board will meet on the 1st day of April for the transaction of county business.

The following are the appointments of Greenbrier, or Lewisburg, District of the Virginia Conference M. E. Church:

The Lexington Gazette comes to us this week in a new dress; one that will compare favorably with that worn by any of our exchanges.

Died.

Mrs. Nancy J. Marshall, widow of Samuel Marshall, dec'd, departed this life on March 5th, 1893, aged 78 years, 7 months and 7 days.

Mrs. Marshall resided at her home at Headwaters, Va. She had spent several days of suffering until God released her from her pain; and then she went to play on the golden harp and sing hallelujah to the Lamb of God forever. She had been a consistent member of the Presbyterian church for a great many years and died in the triumph of faith.

She leaves behind to mourn her loss four children and a host of friends.

Sleep on, dear mother, Take thy rest; God called thee home, He thought it best.

A swell affair—next morning's head after the political rally.

Unclaimed Letters.

Two letters addressed to Miss Annie Sheats and O. L. Wilson respectively, lay uncalled for in Monterey P. O. If not called for in 30 days, they will be sent to the Dead Letter Office, Washington, D. C. Jno. M. Colaw, P. M.

To the man who has grown indifferent to his family, or who is not doing all that he can for the happiness of each member thereof I wish to say: You are wasting life's most precious opportunities for good, and bringing to yourself bitterness where all should be sweet contentment. Turn back to your loved ones and try the power of gentle affection. Once you were willing to make any sacrifice to please the woman of your choice; by your solicitous attentions you won her love; should you not in the same way retain it and strengthen it? I am sure that that there are very few who would intentionally wound their loved ones, but gradually the "small, sweet courtesies of life" are omitted, the tones become more indifferent, the thoughts drift away from love, and the fondest of all ties—that of perfect confidence—is broken. Go back to the old ways. Meet your wife and children with smiles and kisses, and exert yourself to make them happy, as you once did to please the girl you were trying to win. If barriers have been raised between you let no time pass to have them removed, and establish bonds of love that are stronger than steel. No parent can afford to have his children stand aloof with a feeling that there is lack of sympathy. Rather should there be that companionship which invites the utmost confidence and congeniality. I believe it is a mistaken idea that this will encourage disrespect, for the most beautiful service is the service of love.—Exchange.

Backward, turn backward, O time in thy flight, give us July again just for to-night; we are disgusted with snow and with ice; hear our rich warble and take our advice; turn back the clock till it reads August one, give us some dog-days, and give us the sun; give us mosquitoes and give us flies, but turn on some heat before every one dies; bring back our straw hat and good linen pants; give us a chance to live, give us a chance!—State.

The Story of a Novel.

Mr. Howells' latest novel, "The Coast of Bohemia," now running through the pages of The Ladies Home Journal, was written in four different States. Mr. Howells began the novel at his father's home in Ohio last May; continued it in Boston in June; took it to the mountains of New Hampshire during the summer and worked at it; brought it to New York and wrote a number of chapters there in October; took it back to Ohio again in November, and finally finished it in New York last December. And yet, despite all these changes of place of writing, the novel turns out really to be the brightest piece of work that Howells has done for a long time.

THE LATEST, CHEAPEST AND BEST IS THE

CYCLONE

DIGGER

Universally conceded to be the best and only Digger that works to perfection in the softest of sand and the toughest of clay, and unequalled by any others to work in any kind of soil, as the blades are so arranged and made of spring steel, thus allowing them to expand and contract when digging and emptying same.

The handle is so arranged that it can be lengthened to any desired length by adding pipe to it in sections, so that any desired depth can be reached with these Diggers.

It is light, strong, durable and simple (nothing complicated about it), and does twice the work in less time than any other Digger made.

"Seeing is Believing."

And a good lamp must be simple; when it is not simple it is not good. Simple, Beautiful, Good—these words mean much, but to see "The Rochester" will impress the truth more forcibly. All metal, tough and seamless, and made in three pieces only, it is absolutely safe and unbreakable. Like Aladdin's of old, it is indeed a "wonderful lamp," for
